

Our February meeting is next week, February 3rd, Tuesday, at 6:30PM at the Houlton Regional Hospital 3rd Floor Community Room.! Our yards and the roads should be cleared of snow by then.

Next week we are going to learn more about "What your longarm quilter expects". Kim has organized a great program for us.

There are several websites I would like to share with you in preparation for the meeting, our BOM, and the March Workshop.

- 1) generations-quilt-patterns.com ~ pressing techniques
- 2) www.Pinterest.com ~ ideas, pictures, websites, etc.
- 3) www.Youtube.com ~ Missouri Quilt Co.
- 4) Delawarequilts.com ~ BOM block pattern source
- 5) patchworksquare.com ~ BOM block pattern source
- 6) threadsgalore.com ~ patterns, rulers, information about the Perkins and Studio 180* / Deb Tucker

The March 7th Workshop "Doubly Charmed" With Dan & Carol Perkins is available for sign ups. The Perkins will be bringing the rulers and patterns to the workshop for sale to the students of the workshop. "Doubly Charmed" uses 5" squares and makes 2 quilts with very little waste. The supply list is attached to this email for all attending and for those who would like to sign up for the workshop. We have lots of room for students in this workshop. The pattern $10., the V-block template ruler $20.95, the Corner Beam template ruler $ 20.95, quilt members workshop fee $10.00. We can accommodate 20 - 25 students. Please look at the supply list and be inspired to take this technique filled class.

Ladies already signed up: Tricia McCarthy, Gayle Cyr, Pam Dorta, Karen Gallop, Gloria Folsom, Kim Hazlett, Rae Hutchinson, and Dot Fitzpatrick.

Here is the Workshop pattern - which creates two different quilts!

February Fat Quarters will be reds and whites.

So much to do and so little time to do it!!! See you all next week. Brittany
